

Pima County Community College District Annual financial statement and compliance audits

The District's fiscal year 2020 reported financial information is reliable. However, we reported a deficiency over financial reporting, summarized on the next page.

Audits' purposes

To express our opinions on the District's financial statements and on compliance with certain federal requirements and, if applicable, to report findings over noncompliance with certain laws and regulations or other financial deficiencies.

Primary revenue sources and how they were spent

Fiscal years 2011 through 2020
(In millions)

Source: Auditor General staff summary of information obtained from the District's CAFRs.

Largest primary revenue sources

- Property taxes—52.5% FY 20: Levied and collected from property owners based on the assessed value of real and personal property within Pima County.
- Government grants and contracts—21.0% FY 20: Includes State and federal government grant programs awarded primarily for student financial aid and contracts to provide educational services.

Largest primary expense purposes

- Instruction—26.8% FY 20: Costs to provide instruction for all sessions and online learning, including instruction for general academics, vocational/technical programs, and community education.
- Institutional support—19.4% FY 20: Costs for District-wide planning and administrative support, including executive management, general and fiscal operations, information technology, and public relations/development.

District's net position increased in FY 20

District revenues were $35.1 million greater than its expenses, increasing its total net position to $154.0 million at June 30, 2020. Net position includes all assets, such as buildings, vehicles, and cash and investments, less all liabilities, such as unpaid pension and other payroll obligations, long-term debt, and accounts payable. Of this net position, $140.4 million is restricted by external parties or is not in spendable form, and the remaining $13.6 million is unrestricted.

Auditor finding and recommendation

Summarized below is the finding and recommendation from our report over the District's internal control and compliance over financial reporting. This is included in the District's Single Audit Report where there is further information and the District's response.

- The District needs to complete the implementation of its new change management process to effectively manage its information technology system changes. We reported a similar finding in prior years.
